

Faces & Figures

February 27 - April 10, 2026

---

The human form has long been a central subject in art, offering endless possibilities for expression, narrative, and interpretation. Faces and Figures invites artists to explore portraiture and figurative work in all its forms, from realistic depictions to expressive or interpretive approaches. This exhibition welcomes works that capture character, emotion, gesture, and presence, examining how artists represent humanity, identity, and the stories written on the body and face.
