

ABOUT TED ZALEWSKI

Ted Zalewski is an author, actor, historian and teacher. A member of the Screen Actors Guild (SAG/AFTRA), Ted founded the American Theater of Living History in Cambridge, MA, and Solo Together, an association of historical theatrical presenters based in New England. His performances in Teddy Roosevelt: Mind, Body and Spirit and Van Gogh: A Portrait by the Postman Roulin have drawn accolades from audiences across America. Ted enjoyed a longtime career in special education and served on the faculties of Lesley University and the University of Massachusetts, Boston. He is an alumnus of the University of Illinois, Chicago, Loyola University and the Harvard Graduate School of Education.